

ATNS FACILITY VISIT

We are all in awe of the pilot that has “slipped the surly bonds of Earth and danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings” (John Gillespie Magee, High Flight).

But behind the scenes, there is a team of professionals watching each flight, and ensuring the safe passage of the craft, the pilot and the passengers.

Your winning bid on this auction item will see you perched high in the sky watching the Air Traffic Controllers watching over their flock as they take off and land.
