TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- An Empty Leg becomes available when a private jet is booked for one way flight. The aircraft must then fly empty in order to reposition back to base.
- The winning bidder is entitled to the utilisation of one of ExecuJet’s VIP business jets on an Empty Leg between either Lanseria and Cape Town, or Cape Town and Lanseria.
- Validity is 6 months from issue.
- The Empty Leg is worth between R150 000 to R350 000, depending on which aircraft is chosen.
- The number of passengers accommodated depends on the size of the aircraft chosen. The winning lot will cover as many seats the aircraft can accommodate as passenger seats.
- The flight is subject to ExecuJet’s Standard Operating Procedures and limitations on the aircraft type chosen.
- ExecuJet will provide a list of reserved flights, from which the winning bidder may choose: flight, date, and size of aircraft.
- The winning bidder is responsible for arrangement and payment of any accommodation, car hire and return transportation, over-and-above the Empty Leg.
- To safeguard ExecuJet client confidentiality, no aircraft registration numbers or markings may appear in photographs taken before, during or after the Empty Leg flight. Any registration numbers or markings that appear in photographs must be removed or obscured prior to the broadcasting or publishing of such material.
- Daily aviation operations at ExecuJet shall take priority.
- These terms and conditions are those of the generous donor of the lot for auction and are supplementary to the terms and conditions of registration for the auction.
